

TOWN OF FOUNTAIN HILLS

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the Pony Express played a particularly important and colorful part in the history of the West dating back between 1860 and 1861,

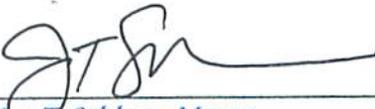

And Whereas, each year the Pony Express riders are remembered with a commemorative ride by the members of the Hashknife Gang traveling from Holbrook to Scottsdale,

And Whereas, Fountain Hills is the next to last stop on their trek,

Now, Therefore, February 8 through 11, 2011, are hereby proclaimed to be Pony Express Days in the Town of Fountain Hills. All Town residents, visitors, and residents and visitors of surrounding areas are invited to join in the festivities and dress western to commemorate this part of our history in the West.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the Town of Fountain Hills, Maricopa County, Arizona this 3rd day of February, 2011.

Jay T. Schlum, Mayor
