1. OL' Bill by Dr. Paul Kolwaite

The weathered face of a cowboy and the skills with a horse to match.

2. Petroglyph Standing Screen by Doug Weigel

3. The Enduring Spirit by Martha Pettigrew

I met a Navajo family selling handmade jewelry alongside a remote highway. There were three generations of family, Grandmother, Mother and daughters. I found them to be a beautiful family. I wanted to celebrate their spirit and love for each other with the creation of the Mother and child alongside.

4. Egghead by Kimber Fiebiger

Egghead is a bronze sculpture that is both fun and whimsical. Reading a book, Humpty sits proudly with his leg crossed, sporting a large polka dot bow tie.

5. Windows Of The Mind by Mary Myers

The theme for the windows for the Fountain Hills Library Association. The theme is interpreted in symbols, using a combination of clear and iridescent glasses with some etching that would be visible inside and out, day and night.

6. Old Friends by George Lundeen

7. Desert Ghosts by Ken Rowe

My wish to explore the mysterious world of the coyote became a reality with this commissioned piece.
